

19. Vanquish — defeat thoroughly;
Inundated — overwhelm with things or people to be dealt with;
Benated — scold or criticize angrily;
20. Prologue — a separate introductory section of a literary, dramatic or musical work.
 — An event or act that leads to another.
Catharsis — the process of releasing strong emotions.
Purgation — purification or cleansing;
Coda — a concluding event, remark or section, (end ending)
homily — a tedious moralizing lecture, (religious act)
Rampage — A period of violent behaviour by a group of people;
Whacked — cause extreme pain,
Strife — conflict;
21. Ominously — in a way that suggest that something bad is going to happen;
Anachronistically — (Anachronistic) — out of-date.
Presciently — knowledge of things or events before they exist or happen;
Providential — occurring at a favourable time; opportune,
Shrewd — having or showing sharp powers of judgement.
Simpatico — likeable and easy to get on with;

22. inure — accustom to something, especially something unpleasant
Exempt — free from an obligation or liability imposed on others
Effusive towards — showing gratitude in a heartfelt manner
Maudlin over — Tearfully sentimental;

23. Syncopated — displace the beats or accents so that strong beats become weak and vice versa;
coalesced — come together to form one mass or whole;
 join together,
Agglomerated — form into a mass or group
(Amortized) — reduce or pay off (a debt) with regular payments;